CHILOCCO STUDENTS AND STAFF DONATE BLOOD

On Monday 10 Chilocco students and 2 of the staff went to Arkansas City, Kansas to donate their blood to the Red Cross Association. The Red Cross comes to Arkansas City twice a year, once in the spring, and once in the fall.

Art Memefee, the mobile chairman of the association reviewed our reporter on the precedures on taking the blood. The workers are all volunteers, registered nurses, and college students.

After everyone finished giving their blood, the ladies served them a meal and make sure they drank a lot of liquid. The part liked most of all was when Mr. Memefee gave each of them tickets for a free "Big Mac" at McDonalds.

In all the total amount of blood that was given from Chilocco was 1 gallon, 2 quarts. We know Chilocco's not scared to give blood.

The students that went were asked to give their comments about how they felt before and after they gave their blood. Some of them got a little carried away about it.

Before Giving Blood

Dwight Howe: "Curious"
Steven Frank: "No Fazz"
Dana LeRoy: "Panic Stricken"
Clenden Warrior: "Thought it would be like a regular shot"
Lorenzo Beard: "Wasn't for sure that was going to happen"
Marie Razo: "I've done it before"
Anthony Parker: "Felt just fine, was curious, besides I came because I had a Big Mac Attack!!!"
Madeliva Russette: "I didn't feel like anything"
Rose Posey: "Scared to death"
Tim Parker: "Felt the same"

After Giving Blood

Dwight Howe: "Felt light-headed"
Steven Frank: "No Fazz . . . (Fainted)"
Dana LeRoy: "Dizzily relieved"
Clenden Warrior: "Didn't feel any different (But the meal sure was good)"
Lorenzo Beard: "Had second thoughts. Felt light-headed (Staggered)"
Marie Razo: "Dizzy"
Anthony Parker: "Normal" (That's what he thinks)
Madeliva Russette: "Almost had a heart attack
Rose Posey: "Felt a lot better"
Tim Parker: "The same"

REMEMBER: GIVING BLOOD IS A COMMUNITY RESPONSIBILITY!

Agriculture's New Arrival

There has been a recent arrival for the agriculture department. Mr. and Mrs. "BUFFALO" would like to proudly announce the arrival of their 75 lb., 10 oz. baby (Buffalo) girl. The calf was born on the 19th of April, and she just happens to be the largest baby born on the Chilocco campus. She is also the first buffalo to be born at Chilocco. The Aggie men named her "Agatha," but the name hasn't become official as yet.

The buffalo was sent here from Nebraska, and the Agriculture Department has been doing a fine job in taking care of them. Now with this addition it has brought the buffalo family to the total of four; 2 bulls, 1 cow, and 1 heifer, (the calf.)

CONGRATULATIONS MR. AND MRS. BUFFALO!!!!!

Chilocco Power Plant Closes Operations

For the first time in Chilocco history the power plant is being closed down. The reason for this is because of the new automatic boilers being installed in all buildings.

The boiler plant men at the time the units were closed were: Howard Childers, supervisor; Joe Compala, Newman Littlewalker, Leon Pingry and Ernest Toppah, operators.

The boilers will be taken out of the plant and will be sold on surplus.

MYSTERY SPOTLIGHT

This week's Mystery Spotlight girl is 5' 6" tall has dark brown hair and brown eyes. She is 20 years old and a member of the Pottawatomie tribe. She is from Atchison, Kansas. Her favorite group is the Jacksons and song "Enjoy Yourself." Her favorite food and drink are Pizza and Coke. The most distinguishing thing about her is saying "Yo."

INDIAN SCHOOL JOURNAL

The Indian School Journal is published bi-monthly by the Chilocco Indian School. Its purpose is to serve the student body as a newspaper where school events are recorded and news items are published. Its views reflect the student body in general, and do not reflect the Administration policies.

The price of the Journal is fifty-cents per volume, October to May inclusive.

Our American Heritage

We need to re-establish our American philosophy of self-reliant, self responsible individuals, who not only want freedom but who have the courage to accept the responsibility of freedom.

Let's tell our children about their American heritage. Their right to become uncommon men! Let's mow down the myth of the common man as a worthy objective. Common is merely a polite word for mediocre. America was not made great by common men! It was made great by uncommon men: Let's keep on producing uncommon men.

Let's tell our children that neither society nor profit are dirty words. Let's admit that every reasonable man wants some security. Americans must earn security, not get it by forfeiting their freedom.

Let's tell our children that there are a million theories on utopia. Every man has his own dream, but only in America can a man make his dream come true—if he is man enough. America's greatest resource isn't gold or iron, natural resources or material wealth. America's greatest resource is the magic of free people living in a free system.

Finally, let's tell our children that their greatest inheritance is their God-Given inalienable rights, including the priceless right to improve themselves by their own efforts.

We have not yet developed a perfect system, but it also true that we have come closer than anyone else on earth.

Chilocco Boxers Fight At Stewart, Nev.

Chilocco Boxers went to Stewart, Indian School in Stewart, Nev. On Friday, April 15, Tim Parker won by a default which put him in the quarter finals, he fought Mark Quintz, who was a fighter for five years. Mark Quintz of Stewart, Nevada, was picked to win a 125 lbs. category, but he barely beat Tim P. by a decision.

Friday at 7:00 p.m., Orvin Flying Horse fought Terry Laduke. Orvin KO'ed Terry in the first round, one minute and forty-five seconds. This took place in the semi-finals. Orvin also had two defaults.

Sim Warrior took 2 defaults that put him in the semi-finals, where he fought Anthony Stacy from Stewart, Nevada. In that fight the referee stopped th fight due to Sim getting hit in the throat and could not breathe.

Saturday at approximatley 8:00 p.m. Orvin went into the finals against Rodger Ponfil from Minneapolis, Minn. In the 2nd round Orvin got his nose broke. Littlewalker ask if Orvin wanted to continue his fight. Orvin said he would continue to the ' round. Littlewalker told him to go ahead and take a decision. Orvin got beat by one point. When the awards were being given out, Orvin won the Sportsmanship Award.

Littlewalker told the boxers, "I think it was a great experience to fight in the National finals, because there was no 2nd hand fighters, they were all first class fighters. The only disadvantage we had was the light air in Nevada. Our fighters were well-behaved while there."

Littlewalker also stated, "I think the boys enjoyed going to Nevada, and I hope next year they will be able to attend the Olympic tryouts.

A recent fire at the Chilocco dump brought the Aggie Dept. out in force.

In re: Franklin J. Keel (Deceased)
Class of 1927

Dear Friends:

Tonight I read in the April, 1977 issue of the Cherokee Advocate about the Chilocco Reunion June 18-19, and noticed the request for information on members of the Class of '27, including my brother, Franklin J. Keel.

You are advised that Franklin ("Frank" to our family and "Pick" to the members of his class while attending Chilocco Indian School) died ten years ago today, on May 7, 1976, at Oklahoma City. Frank was a long-time employee of the Internal Revenue Service and at the time of his death was one of the two Supervisors of the Oklahoma City office of I.R.S. An avid tennis player and holder of trophies in singles and doubles, he died on the tennis court. All sports were an important part of his life and we believe he would have wanted it that way. After receiving his high school diploma at Chilocco, he was awarded a B.S. degree from Redlands University in California and a B.D. degree from Newton Theological Semniary in Massachusetts. He had attended Bacone College two years prior to going to Redlands. Just thought you might be interested in this part of the life of one of the 1927 graduates.

I happen to have been a member of the 1928 graduating class at Chilocco and regret that I will not be able to attend the golden anniversary of the 1927 class, as I remember every one of the class members named and it would be an extremly happy occasion to attend. I still have the 1928 Chilocco Annual and several of the pictures therein include members of the 1927 class, of course.

I am enclosing my personal check for alumni dues. If this is not correct amount, I shall appreciate your informing me about this. Also, where could I obtain copies of any official pictures that might be taken of the 1927 class members attending the alumni meeting this year? I am enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelop for your reply.

The Lord willing and "the creek don't rise," I'll be attending the alumni meeting next year and hope to see the surviving members of my class of 1928 there. After all these years, I have only the fondest memories of Chilocco. May God bless your efforts as you proceed with the Reunion.

Sincerely,
Juanita J. Tate

THE LEGEND

As the WARRIOR stalked a BUFFALO-HEAD, he saw a MADBULL eating GRASS. Then he gazed wonderously into the sky saw shining STARR. Suddenly the STARR turns into a FLYINGHORSE, with a WHITEHORN. "That star is very strange he thought to himself. The WARRIOR started getting thirsty so he thought it WISE if he seeked water and shelter. He soon came upon a river and sees a BEAR, catching some FISH for his supper. The BEAR CALLSHIM, and together they both know that they are brothers, put here by the Great Spirit.

Later he thought he'd better start out to return to his tribe before KNIGHT came. While walking on the trail home he saw a RATTLER, it was a strange RATTLER at that! It came down from a tree, and it had a BEARD! The WARRIOR was amazed, for he had never seen a RATTLER like that before, so he killed it and gave it to his chief. His Chief's name was well known, it was Chief BLACKBURN. Chief BLACKBURN was grateful for the present. He asked the WARRIOR how he killed it, he just replied, "Oh, I killed it with a big RHODD." To show his gratitude, the chief gave the WARRIOR a WHITEFEATHER, from a BIGGOOSE for his REDHAT. The feathers were honorary feathers.

Chief BLACKBURN gave the RATTLER to his wife, to bake, he thought she was a wonderful BAKER. HOLDEN on to the RATTLER, she skinned it very carefully. He couldn't help but notice how pretty she was wearing her clothes of FURR. To be FRANK with you, that's all she had to wear!! Well, she ended up burning up the RATTLER to a crisp, so they had to settle for WILSON certified franks. And that's the end of this PAGE.
